Thanks to everyone who entered on Saturday night. The results are...

Map Sudoku

Joint first with 16/16 were Richard Goodwin and David Spencer. A close joint third with 14/16 were the Roger Jackson/Alan Irving team (Blencathra and Harrop Tarn columns reversed) and the Kate Charles/John Slater team (Blencathra and Mirehouse rows reversed). Copies of Map Sudoku still available for anyone who wants to try it. Answer sheet posted on website.

Map Quiz

Two people tied for first with 6 out of 10. One we think was Alastair and Daniel (on the back of a map Sudoku with interesting teenager drawings on it). The other was on the back of the map quiz sheet itself – no name.

Map Quiz Answers

1. Keswick
2. Darling How
3. Mell Fell (Mapper was Martin Bagness)
4. Bleaberry Fell (Mapper was Dick Warner)
5. Whitehaven
6. Curwen Park
7. Kelton Fell used for Parish Relays (Mapper was Pete Nelson)

Trivia Quiz

This was meant to be tough. Very well done to Jane Hunter who won with 15 points, although the Breeze/Thomas team weren't far behind with 13.

Quiz Answers

- 1) Peterill, Eden and Caldew
- 2) J45 (Gretna)
- 3) Barrow in Furness (South America is a sandbank, St Helena and Falkland are nearby rocks)
- 4) Millican Dalton, Professor of Adventure
- 5) 33 (I would have accepted 32 since only 32 are actually in Cumbria: Silverdale isn't)
- 6) 8: Skiddaw, Scafell Pike, High Street, Black Coombe, Cross Fell, Cold Fell (S of Brampton), Rottington (St Bees Head) and Whitelyne Common (N of Bewcastle)
- 7) Arthur Ransome
- 8) Derwent Water
- 9) Records are often a problem. There are two: 134 mph on Great Dun Fell in 1968 (an official site at the time), but 101 mph is often given (St Bees Head in 2005 and Sellafield in 1984). Both were accepted.
- 10) The Cheviot, Northumberland (815 m) (a remarkable number of people put Cross Fell)
- 11) Allen Craggs and Yoke (Steve B got it wrong too)
- 12) Fox Hunting
- 13) Skiddaw (a point was given to the person who put CFR for entering into the light hearted spirit of the event)
- 14) I believed people whether they said that they did or didn't know John Peel. He lived at Ruthwaite (between Binsey and Uldale)
- 15) They are all the termini of the roads A1, A2, A3, A4, A5, and A6
- 16) West Cumbria (anagram of Bacterium SW)
- 17) Brief Encounter
- 18) Caldbeck Fells
- 19) Deaths in Hamlet (Great respect – but no extra points -to the person who named them all)
- 20) A bacon sandwich
- 21) Pineau de Re or Downies (the obligatory sport question)
- 22) Almost anything with the word Barrow in it would have done. Barrow is the nearest Wainwright to the Village Hall and the Hoad monument above Ulverston is to Sir John Barrow who was responsible for the Franklin expedition to the NW passage (everyone died), as well as the official enquiry and best-selling book about the Mutiny on the Bounty.
- 23) Philae which landed on a comet in November. The original Philae is a stone obelisk which was removed from its original location in Egypt and put in the grounds of a National trust property in Kingston Lacy (Dorset) by someone who thought that it looked better there.
- 24) Nigel Farage (both were names of his memoirs)
- 25) Damien Lewis
- 26) Emmet (The Lego Movie)
- 27) Bill Teasdale – 'King of the Fells' (1950's and 1960's)
- 28) Jermain Jackman (won The Voice 2014 it appears) (the obligatory popular culture question)
- 29) Alastair Thomas – the next King of the Fells? A LOT of people put Prince George, who is coincidentally the next (but two) King.
- 30) Samuel Taylor Coleridge
